

Legend holds that 1,500 years ago Saint Patrick heroically saved the Emerald Isle from a plague of snakes. Today we find ourselves fighting a different plague that is more deadly and unrelenting; PEDIATRIC CANCER. This year we ask you to join the quest with Saint Patrick to save these kids, to CURE kids with cancer, and to - Celebrate this Saint Patrick's Day with a Purpose.

Please join us to help save kids from 5pm to 8 pm on March 6, 2010 at:

Johnny's Irish Pub

1382 Culver Road-Rochester, NY 14609-(585) 224-0990

$10 suggested donation; food will be provided and a cash bar. Proceeds will go to CURE kids of cancer.

Stay for live music at 8:30 pm

Cure Me I'm Irish raises money for the NB Alliance to fund research to find a cure for Neuroblastoma. Below is Will, the son of a friend of Amy's from college. This event is in honor of his strength and courage, and in honor of all the children fighting for their lives. Please visit www.willacey.com or www.nballiance.org for more information.

Thanks in advance for your support!

-Amy Hoffman Davis and Sue Miles

©2018 Sarah Patel Photography

Cancer picked this fight.
Will wants to win it.

Join the fight www.NBalliance.org

